ABOUT THE CATHEDRAL

Saint Patrick's Cathedral has been at the heart of Dublin and Ireland's history and culture for over 800 years. The largest Cathedral in the country, it has been visited by some of Irish history's most influential individuals from Cromwell to Queen Victoria. It is the final resting place for one of Ireland's most famous men, Jonathan Swift, author of Gulliver's travels and Dean of the Cathedral. It is today the National Cathedral for the Church of Ireland.

The Cathedral's unique atmosphere makes it an ideal venue for a wide range of events from concerts to cocktail receptions and seated dinners. Music has long played an important role in the life of the Cathedral, and our superlative choir is available to perform as part of your evening. If you'd like a little historical background, after-hours tours are also available.

Whatever your vision, our events staff will help you to realize it.
