God has been worshipped in this place through the prayers and praises of countless generations. Worship lies at the heart of our life as Christians and we express our theology and belief through our liturgy. It is through these liturgical patterns of words and actions that we are formed and transformed.

THE DEAN WRITES...

THE VERY REVD DR WILLIAM MORTON

Autumn is well and truly upon us, heralding October as a month of change. The light fades more quickly, the evenings draw in, and the colours of the leaves remind us both of the beauty of creation and of the passage of time. Even in the heart of the city—where leaves fall not into meadows but on to pavements, and where the hum of traffic replaces the rustle of hedgerows—the rhythm of the seasons still makes itself felt.

Traditionally, this is the time of harvest thanksgiving. Though few of us now gather crops or fill barns, we depend nonetheless upon the fruits of the earth and the labour of those who tend and harvest them. In giving thanks, we acknowledge not only our daily bread but also our shared responsibility for one another, particularly those who live with scarcity rather than plenty.

October is also a month of special commemorations in the life of the Cathedral. At Choral Evensong on the first three Sundays there is a special ‘designation’ or focus to the worship. On Sunday 5th, we commemorate the Huguenots, who, forced to flee their native France owing to the revocation by Louis XIV of the Edict of Nantes, came to Dublin and worshipped in the Lady Chapel, contributing their gifts and talents to the industry and life of this city. Then on Sunday 12th October, some of the Past Choristers of Saint Patrick’s will lend voice by joining the Choir in the stalls to give thanks for the rich choral tradition stretching back over several centuries. On Sunday 19th October, we commemorate the life and ministry of the late Dr Jonathan Swift, Dean of Saint Patrick's from 1713-1745. As we plan ahead for worship in this way, we are reminded that we are part of a story much larger than our own, one that continues to be written here in Saint Patrick's.

And then, as the month turns, November invites us into remembrance—of saints, of souls, of all who have gone before us. The falling leaves and shortening days prompt us to think of our own mortality, but also of the hope we share: that in Christ life is stronger than death, and love endures.

May this season of thanksgiving and remembrance be for us all a time of reflection, gratitude, and renewed faith.

Yours,
William

A SHOT FROM THE CANON

THE REVD CANON
CHARLES MULLEN

I'm often asked if I believe in angels. I do, because life is a series of awkward struggles that arise from temptation. Should I eat that scrumptious cream cake? Is there a voice that could say to me, 'Not at any price!' In Christian doctrine this voice is called conscience. Like angels, it's difficult to grasp. When it's directing us, the angels can wage war against sin and the devil: we're not alone in our struggles. But believing in angels isn't enough: like them, we must believe in God. Our faith awakens our conscience to help us shame the devil.

CM

ANGELS BENDING NEAR THE EARTH

Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love-song which they bring:
O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!

*From a hymn
by Edmund Sears (1810–76)*

Lord, give thy angels every day
Command to guide us on our way,
And bid them every evening keep
Their watch around us while we sleep;
So shall no evil thing draw near,
To do us harm or cause us fear;
And we shall dwell, when life is past,
With angels round thy throne at last.

*From a hymn
by John Mason Neale (1818–66)*

THE ADMINISTRATOR WRITES...

MR GAVAN WOODS

The completion and hand over date for the Mews is scheduled for 4 December. Though I would not be so rash as to schedule an event in the building for the 5th, I am happy to report that the project is progressing well, and we are very hopeful we will have the Mews in use before Christmas.

The quality of the contractor's work is first class, and we are confident the Mews will be a beautiful as well as functional space for the Cathedral community to use and enjoy.

We have appointed a new finance manager in the office who is due to start with us on 20 October; more details to follow shortly. This role is a key element of our plan to ensure that we maintain our strong record of transparency, prudence, and good governance in financial matters as we encounter the opportunities and challenges that the future will undoubtedly bring us.

Various employment opportunities currently exist here at Saint Patrick's so if you think you would like to be part of our team, visit our website to find out more: stpatrikscathedral.ie/careers.

Finally a word about the busy summer season now drawing to a close. Record visitor figures were attained this summer with a figure of 96,000 visitors recorded for August; the first time we have breached the 90,000 mark in the Cathedral's history in a single month. Obviously this is positive news though it is important to highlight the tireless work of my colleagues, particularly at the welcome desk and marketing teams, reflected in these results. I hope the quieter period ahead will allow time for all to recover and regroup as we approach Christmas and the end of the year.

CONDOLENCES

Those who are bereaved always appreciate the fact that they are being remembered in the prayers of others, for which they are most grateful. We express sincere condolences to all who have lost loved ones. Please remember in your prayers Canon Craig McCauley, Prebendary of Tipperkevin, and his wife, Vida, and their family, on the death on 22nd September of Vida's father, Mr David Gillespie, Boyle, County Roscommon, the second bereavement for the family in that Canon McCauley's mother, Marguerite, died on 13th July. We remember also three of our bellringers in their time of bereavement: Ann-Marie Fitzmaurice, on the death of her mother, Philomena, Portobello; Clodagh Canavan, on the death of her mother, Sarah, Raheny; and Joan Murphy, on the death of her sister-in-law, Deirdre Bailey, in Belfast. Margaret, one of our Welcome Desk staff, has been bereaved by the death of her grandmother in South Carolina; our sincere condolences are extended to Margaret and her family.

We record also the death of Peter Dunn, grandfather of Milo and Mia Mulkeen, Cathedral choristers. Peter, who died peacefully on 16th September, will be remembered fondly by his family, especially his daughter, Miriam, mother of Mia and Milo.

Michael Kunkel has also been bereaved by the death of Callan, uncle of a friend.

We give thanks in our prayers for the life and ministry of the Reverend Canon Dr Billy Marshall, a native of County Tyrone, former Rector of Rathmichael, lecturer in Trinity College, Dublin, and for some years Vice-Principal of The Church of Ireland Theological College (as it was then known).

The death has also occurred of Dr Martin Neary, former Organist of Westminster Abbey, who in retirement made several visits to Saint Columb's Cathedral, Londonderry, during my time as Dean, to give organ recitals. He also was musical adviser in the production of a CD by the Choir in Saint Columb's, All Things Bright And Beautiful.

We remember also in our prayers the family of the Reverend William (Billy) Watson, former Chaplain and Tutor of Saint Peter's College, Oxford, who passed away at home in Oxford, in his 100th year. Born in Drogheda, Mr Watson was educated in Trinity College, Dublin, and served as a Curate in Chapelizod and Kilmainham before taking up his post in England. Mr Watson, who was the uncle of Rowena (Dean's Secretary), will be remembered fondly by his wife, Jill, his sister, Frances Gooding, and their respective families.

All who mourn are assured of our thoughts and prayers.

WWM

WEDDING CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to one of our vergers, Aaron Hoey, and his wife Jessica, who were married in Saint Canice's Cathedral in Kilkenny on Saturday 6th September. The Dean of Ossory, the Very Revd Stephen Farrell, kindly invited Dean Morton to give an address.

DEAN'S GIFT DAY

We are delighted to share some wonderful news with our Cathedral community: the new chairs for the Lady Chapel have now arrived.

This has been made possible through the generosity of those who supported this year's Dean's Gift Day Appeal. We are deeply grateful for your kindness. Each donation has ensured that our Cathedral is ready to embrace the encouraging increase in the size of our congregations.

BATTLE OF BRITAIN COMMEMORATION

At Choral Evensong on Sunday 21 September members of the Royal Air Force's Association, Republic of Ireland, attended the annual commemoration of the Battle of Britain (1940). The Lessons were read by Colonel Sean Grant, Defence Attaché of the United Kingdom, and Mr John Connolly, Chairman of RAFA; the preacher was the Most Reverend the Prebendary of Cualaun. Wreaths were laid at the RAF memorial in the north transept. It was a privilege once again to welcome Brigadier General Rory O'Connor, General Officer Commanding, The Air Corps, witnessing to the relationship shared by The Air Corps and the RAF. CM

CZECH AMBASSADOR VISIT

The Czech Ambassador to Ireland, Dr Pavel Vosalik, and three Senators from the Upper House of the Czech Parliament were welcomed on a courtesy visit to Saint Patrick's by the Dean, and by Mr Louis Parminter, Dean's Verger and Cathedral Manager, who kindly gave the visitors a guided tour. The Ambassador is pictured first from right.

CONFIRMATION

On Sunday 21 September at Choral Eucharist, Archbishop Michael Jackson, Prebendary of Cualaun, confirmed seven candidates. Having confirmed their baptismal promises, we wish the candidates well as they begin a new stage in their journey of faith. The candidates were presented by Canon David Oxley. CM

NEW VERGER

Thomas McTague has recently been appointed as one of the Vergers of Saint Patrick's Cathedral. Before taking up this post, he was a valued member of the Events Staff and, some months ago, also served as an assistant verger. Thomas also recently served as a member of the staff at the Welcome Desk. His experience in those roles has prepared him well for his new responsibilities. Already, Thomas is showing great promise, especially in his attention to detail, his expertise with technology, and his dedication to the Cathedral. WWM

FOUR FRIENDS, TWO CATHEDRALS, ONE EXTRAORDINARY JOURNEY

Four friends from England, members of the Church - Sam, AJ, Alan, Kevin - attended the early Eucharist on Sunday 7th September after which, as they explained, they were embarking on an ambitious plan – to walk from Saint Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, to Saint David's Cathedral in Wales, retracing the footsteps of Saint Aidan. Geared up, and enthused, they promised to keep in touch – and they did! Sam has written: “We experienced God’s presence in conversations, hospitality, prayer, and creation. Challenges, surprises, and friendships deepened the journey. Linking both cathedrals, we felt welcomed, refreshed, and inspired to strengthen Irish-Welsh pilgrimage bonds.”

In describing their undertaking, the four said they wished it to be of benefit both spiritually and physically. After the event, Kevin also referred to the challenge of the walk, the natural beauty of their route, and their unforgettable encounters of generosity and faith. “Amid rain and hard walking, God’s call became clear: to leave architectural practice and discern ordained ministry. The journey offered reflection, hope, and conviction to share Christ’s light in today’s searching world,” he stated.

Incidentally, Saint David’s is known as the smallest city in the UK – both by size and population (just over 1,600 residents). In medieval times it was a major pilgrimage site: two pilgrimages to Saint David’s were considered equal to one to Rome, and three were equal to one to Jerusalem.

As I understand it from our four friends, Saint David’s Cathedral has on its staff a pilgrimage officer who assists and supports individuals and groups who visit the historic site.

HERITAGE ON TAP: NEW BOOK UNVEILS THE GUINNESS STORY

The Dean was delighted to be invited to the launch of Guinness: A Family Succession, the hot off the press book by the 4th Earl of Iveagh, Arthur Edward Guinness, 'the true story of the struggle to create the world's largest brewery.' The launch took place in the former Guinness family home at 80 Saint Stephen's Green which now houses The Department of Foreign Affairs.

The large number in attendance, representing various strands of civic life, heard Lord Iveagh describe how the book came about: 'As head of the Guinness family, I've always been fascinated by the lives of my ancestors, these personalities who in four generations took Guinness from nothing to the largest brewery in the world. I feel it's time to tell the true story.'

Published by Scala Arts & Heritage Publishers, Ltd., Great Ormonde Street, London, this book is described on the back cover as 'a tale of brewing genius, sibling rivalry, bounteous philanthropy and astonishing social mobility which are interwoven with historic national events, including the Act of Union, Catholic Emancipation, the Famine, the Home Rule Movement, the Dublin Lockout and ultimately Irish Independence – the inside story, as told by Ned Guinness.'

CULTURE NIGHT 2025

Culture Night, which was held on Friday 19th September, was a great success.

To begin the evening, approximately 450 visitors attended Evensong, which was followed by a performance by the choristers. Afterwards, the Cathedral opened for free guided tours and self-guided visits, which saw an additional 780 visitors throughout the night. The bellringers also organised a ringing demonstration, which passers-by could listen to from the park.

Many thanks to the Welcome Desk and Events staff who helped the evening run smoothly. I would like to say a special thank you to our excellent team of volunteer tour guides and welcomers, pictured to the right, who were hard at work providing audio guides and back-to-back guided tours to the many hundreds of visitors we welcomed in. Every year we are very lucky to have an enthusiastic group volunteering for Culture Night, and we wouldn't be able to have such a successful event without their contributions.

COMMUNITY NEWS

This summer Holy Trinity Rathmines was the recipient of the kindness and generosity of Saint Patrick's Cathedral in the shape of Kelley Bermingham and the 'Holy Hot Wheels'! Ruth Gyves and her team run a two weekly afternoon tea in Holy Trinity called Come Together Tuesdays, mainly made up of retired folk from our own church and beyond. This year, Ruth had the bright idea of the group going on an outing and found Kelley and the Cathedral bus was available to us. We enjoyed three trips out with Kelley – two to St Brigid's Cathedral and one to Saint Patrick's Cathedral.

There was great joy and laughter on Sunday 30th June when the first group headed off after our morning service. We had a delicious lunch in the Silken Thomas in Kildare, followed by a wonderful tour of St Bridgid's Cathedral and then on to the Japanese Gardens. Apart from a shower of rain early on, we were blessed with blue skies and sunshine for the rest of the afternoon.

Three days later, the next group of merry pilgrims boarded the bus and headed to Kildare for a repeat of lunch and a visit to the cathedral, but plans were altered when there was a deluge of rain as we were about to board the bus again. Instead, we thoroughly enjoyed a visit to Newbridge Silverware where some enjoyed the Museum of Style Icons, some filled bags with shopping, and others simply enjoyed the surrounds of the coffee shop.

Finally, on the last Friday in August, Kelley and the bus transported us to Saint Patrick's Cathedral where she led us on an excellent tour which included our group singing The Lord's my Shepherd in the choir stalls! If ever a reserved choir is needed, look no further! After our tour, we enjoyed delicious scones and coffee in the Hyatt Centric across the road.

We were so blessed by Kelley and her great kindness and good humour. I think we'll be talking about our summer trips for a long time to come.

PYLA PROJECT UPDATE

We are delighted that the Gateway Project is continuing in its expansion with a formalisation of its status just confirmed. Springboard Northern Ireland have collaborated with The Gateway Project and a delegation is out in Pyla to mark International Day of Peace. ‘The young people from Shankill and Clonard will continue their research on the impact of peace walls as societal and psychological barriers, contextualising their own circumstances in Belfast. International Study is an amazing opportunity for young people to learn, connect, and develop global viewpoints on conflict and reconciliation.

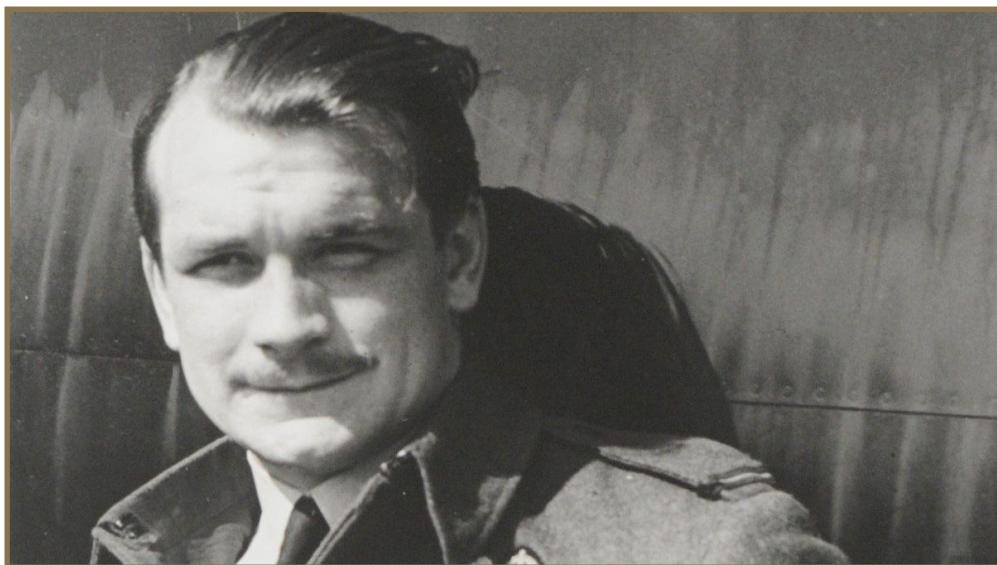

Springboard has had the privilege of taking young people abroad for many years to explore grassroots peacebuilding; it has been a fantastic tool in forming a greater picture of the world outside of Belfast! As part of its The Wall2Wall Programme, the members of the group said that they have spent their first day being welcomed into the last divided capital in Europe! They crossed peace barriers that split one community from another, something that resonates all too well with young people from Northern Ireland.

The group had a lot to think about, looking at similarities and differences from Nicosia’s Green Line to our own peace wall in Belfast. As the group heard from the UN and local peace activists the question was posed;

What is the real cause of division – the walls we physically see, or the walls in our minds?’ Kelley Bermingham

JOHN HEMINGWAY TRIBUTE EVENING

On Thursday 9th October at 7.30pm Saint Patrick's Cathedral will host a special Tribute Evening in honour of John "Paddy" Hemingway (1919–2025), the last surviving pilot of the Battle of Britain — and a former chorister of this Cathedral.

Born in Rathmines, Hemingway attended both the Cathedral Choir School and Saint Andrew's College (which, in John's day, would have been situated at 21 Saint Stephen's Green) before joining the Royal Air Force in 1938. In 1940 he flew Hurricanes in the Battle of Britain, surviving being shot down four times and later receiving the Distinguished Flying Cross. His passing on Saint Patrick's Day this year, aged 105, marked the end of a remarkable generation known as "the Few."

The Tribute Evening will bring together the Cathedral Choristers and musicians from Saint Andrew's College, Blackrock to honour Group Captain Hemingway in music and word. The programme will include hymns he would have known as a boy chorister, wartime songs, and reflections from family and friends on John's courage, character, and enduring legacy.

All are warmly invited to join us for this celebration of courage, humility, and faith. Before he ever soared into the skies, John Hemingway first lifted his voice in song here at Saint Patrick's — a legacy we now remember with gratitude.

Please note that while admission to the Tribute Evening is free of charge, it is essential to book tickets through the Events section of the website of Saint Patrick's Cathedral: stpattrickscathedral.ie
